

VOLUNTEER RECRUITMENT NIGHT CYCLING 2014

Programme	Night Cycling 2014
Date	21 March 2014
Time	10pm to 8am
Location	Pasir Ris, Sengkang, Punggol
Activity Type	Sports and Recreation
Description of Activity	Participants will cycle a total estimated distance of 35 KM, travelling from Pasir Ris to Sengkang and Punggol, visiting food of interest and exploring the night at these estates. Activities will also be carried out along the way for value-base learning.
Address of activity	Pasir Ris, Sengkang, Punggol
Description of roles	Planning committee and / or facilitator
How does volunteer contribute towards the organisation's mission?	The event is more than just another activity that we want participant to go through. We want every participant to learn something through their experience and as part of the planning committee, he or she contributes ideas to make that happened and as a facilitator, he or she enable participant to learn through their experience.
Qualification and Skills	Able to cycle quite confidently Possess strong communication skill (eg. is able to speak confidently in front of crowd) Prior experience in leading / facilitating team First Aid certified (preferred) Is a team player
Pointers to Note	1 recce and 1 training session to equip volunteer will be conducted Volunteers are expected to attend committee meeting (Frequency: once every 2 – 3 weeks)
Beneficiaries	Youths
Number of Beneficiaries for this activity	30 – 50
No. of volunteers needed	10